WFS' JETQUAY WINS CONTRACT TO MANAGE CHANGI LOUNGE AT SINGAPORE'S JEWEL CHANGI AIRPORT

JetQuay, the airport services and passenger experience specialist owned by Worldwide Flight Services (WFS), has been appointed lounge operator for the Changi Lounge at Jewel Changi Airport (Jewel), Singapore's newest lifestyle destination featuring exciting attractions, as well as shopping and dining experiences.

Located on Level 1 of Jewel, Changi Lounge operates round-the-clock and is seamlessly connected to Terminals 1, 2 and 3. The lounge serves intermodal transfer passengers arriving in Changi, who are transferring onward to cruises or ferries from maritime terminals in Singapore. These passengers can rest and relax in the Changi Lounge, or explore Jewel's range of exciting attractions and lifestyle offerings as their travel formalities are taken care of. The lounge is also available as a pay-per-use lounge to other passengers who are looking for a lounge to rejuvenate themselves in-between their travel plans.

Passengers can enjoy comfortable seating, free flow refreshments, high-speed internet connectivity and business facilities. There are also shower and napping amenities for those seeking a little rejuvenation before the next leg of their journey.

Barry Nassberg, Group Chief Commercial Officer at WFS, said: "Winning this important new contract is a great tribute to the JetQuay team in Singapore, under the leadership of James Carey, Regional MD Hong Kong & Singapore and Samantha Lim, GM of JetQuay. In keeping with WFS' global business ethos, they will ensure the best possible experience for Changi Lounge guests and, in doing so, support the outstanding reputation of Changi Airport as a world class travel gateway."
