JETEX PARTNERS WITH WFS FOR EXECUTIVE AVIATION SERVICES IN PARIS

Jetex, a global leader in executive aviation, has signed a three-year contract with Worldwide Flight Services (WFS) to provide full handling services for private jets at Paris Orly Airport.

Jetex operates Fixed Base Operations (FBOs) and ground support stations in more than 30 countries, including three state-of-the-art operations centres strategically located in Dubai, Miami and Beijing offering 24/7 service worldwide. Its elite clientele includes owners and operators of business jets for corporate, commercial and personal air travel.

Will Facey, EVP Ground Handling Europe Middle East Africa & Asia (EMEAA) at WFS, said: "Jetex is highly respected for its professional executive aviation services and expects the very highest standards for its customers. We are delighted that they have recognised our expertise in handling general aviation flights and our understanding of the level of requirements and tailor-made solutions required by their customers. Our global network, know-how and commitment to service, safety and security mean WFS is perfectly placed to meet these premier service standards."

Executive aviation flights to and from Paris Orly are handled through the airport's South Terminal.
